Ab Ream, Manager of Operations and Maintenance Programs

Ab Ream is the Department of Energy Federal Energy Management Program's (FEMP's) Manager of Operations and Maintenance programs, designed to help agencies reduce their energy costs and consumption through better O&M practices. Prior to FEMP, he was the U.S. Coast Guard's Facilities Energy Program Manager, where he created and managed the first comprehensive approach to facilities energy management in that agency.